David McDivitt joined McDivitt Law Firm in August 2007 after working with the Colorado office of the State Public Defender, where he earned a reputation as a highly successful and experienced trial lawyer. McDivitt Law Firm is privileged to have an attorney with his extensive trial experience.

Mr. McDivitt devotes 100 percent of his time to representing those injured in auto accidents, victims of drunk drivers, victims of defective products and machinery, and those who have been seriously injured due to the negligence of others.

He has been admitted to the Colorado Bar, the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado, and the U.S. Court of Appeals, 10th Circuit. He received his Bachelor of Art degree in economics from the University of Colorado at Boulder, where he graduated magna cum laude and was honored with admission into Phi Beta Kappa and the Golden Key National Honor Society. He was also the recipient of the Dean's Scholars Arts and Sciences Scholarship and the Alumni Association Scholarship. During his undergraduate years, he also attended the University of Paris, Sorbonne, where he earned a certification in the French language.

Mr. McDivitt received his Juris Doctorate from the University of Colorado School of Law. During his tenure at law school, he served as an editor of the University of Colorado Law Review, was the winner of the Carrigan Cup Mock Trial Competition, the William O. DeSouchet Award for “Best Individual Performance in Trial Advocacy,” the Colorado Trial Lawyer’s Association award, and the Joel H. Greenstein Award for “Best Performance in Advanced Trial Advocacy.”

His professional memberships include the American Association for Justice (Formerly Association of Trial Lawyers of America), the Colorado Trial Lawyers Association, the Colorado Bar Association, and the El Paso County Bar Association.
